

Denton Independent School District
Fred Moore Day Nursery School, Inc
MOU
September22, 2020

SUMMARY:

This item is an updated version from September 8, 2020 board meeting of the memorandum of understanding (MOU) with Fred Moore Day Nursery School, Inc. Over the past week we have worked with Fred Moore Day Nursery School, Inc. on some of the wording in the MOU. Overall, no significant change from the MOU approved on September 8, 2020. Changes to the MOU are in green print.

BOARD GOAL:

Growth & Management: In pursuit of excellence, we will:

- Demonstrate effective and efficient management of District resources

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Currently, Denton ISD has a long-standing relationship with Fred Moore Day Nursery School, Inc. The updated MOU continues this relationship for a period of three years. Typically, the MOU is updated and presented to the board each fall.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

The updated MOU includes the same overall relationship with a few additions that include ideas to continue to build our relationship, Fred Moore moving to a 3-year-old program only at Gonzalez, and a revenue stream tied to the state revenue generated by the number of eligible 3-year-old students in the program.

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS:

A minimum of 50% of the state revenue generated by eligible 3-year-olds in the Fred Moore Day School Nursery program at Gonzales.

BENEFIT OF ACTION:

The approval of this action would allow the continuation of the program provided by Fred Moore Day Nursery School, Inc.

SUPERINTENDENT'S RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the Board approve the updated Memorandum of Understanding with Fred Moore Day School, Inc.
