Third, Fourth, and Fifth grade students will challenge the TAKS tests during the week of April 26th.

Dr. John Irish, an accomplished trumpet player and a Professor at ASU, was a guest of the 4th and 5th grade classes last week. The San Angelo Symphony's Music in Literature program made Dr. Irish's appearance possible. Our students were treated to trumpet solos and a narration of If I Only Had a Horn Young Louis Armstrong, by Roxane Orgill.

Fierce competitions and lots of laughs could be observed on Tuesday, April 13th. That evening, David Porter, PE/Health instructor, coordinated a CUP STACKING competition between our 3-5 graders and their parents. Our food service department provided healthy snacks and Susie Bishop, Crockett County's Family and Consumer Science Agent; spoke about incorporating healthy habits into family activities. Seventy-five participants had a great time! We plan on making this an annual event.

A special thank you goes out to this month's "friends of education", Jodi Upham, County Attorney, and Triple C Hardware. They provided books to our Fourth grade classes about learning decision-making skills and character education.
