Cereal Box Donation

22

Who: Students and Staff at Igo.

What: Cereal Boxes for a dominos down the hall experience!

When: February 4th

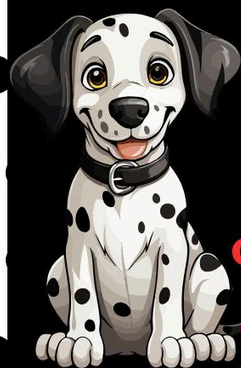

Where: The halls of Igo Elementary.

Why: For the 100th day of school and to help our community with food donations.

Igo is participating in a food drive of cereal boxes while celebrating the 100th day of school. This will be a competition between grade levels to see which grade level can collect the most cereal boxes by February 4th. After we collect the boxes we plan to celebrate by setting them up as a domino chain in the hallways and get them knocked over! If you are interested in donating, please send in a box (or a few!) of cereal with your child to help us support our community by February 4th.

YOU WILL STILL NEED YOUR ID EVERY TIME YOU VISIT OUR CAMPUS. It will just go faster since you are in the system.
