AGENDA ITEM: 9.1

TOPIC: Second Reading to Move School Board Elections to Even Years

BACKGROUND: School Board elections have been held on odd years for a number of years. With the upcoming election in November 2013, staff members have been attending meetings regarding the election process. There has been a trend for school districts to move toward even year elections to save on resources - time and money.

PROCESS: A decision to move to even year elections needs to be made fairly soon and involves timelines within the election process.

RECOMMENDATION: Decision and discussion on whether or not to move School Board elections to even years.
