Background Information:

Academic Support and the Federal and State Programs office wish to apply for a grant from the office of the Governor. This grant application requires board notification and a signature from the Board President. This grant is one that we received in the past. The grant was written to target attendance and truancy. This took place prior to 2020. They will not consider an application complete without this document. The application deadline is before our February Board meeting.

Fiscal Implications:

There are no fiscal implications.

Administrative Recommendation:

This resolution is an important requirement before applying for grants with the Office of the Governor.

Motion Language (fill in the blank):

I move that the board approve the resolution as submitted.
