This week the Title team is using every available moment to help teachers gather current skill levels so they can accurately reflect growth on upcoming progress reports.

Title is beginning to make a shift from Barton Level 3 to a more student-friendly program, Early Interventions in Reading. Assistants are reporting that students are more engaged, that they enjoy the variety of activities, and that kids love getting to take the books home.

It looks like the Bikes for Books program will not happen this year. I contacted Greg Roe, our contact for last year, and he is no longer with the lodge. He forwarded the message onto Ted Crocker who told me he is trying to find someone to oversee the program. He will get in touch with me if he can make it happen.

We have been busy getting organized for Multicultural Night next month. Teachers have their literature chosen and their activities planned out. A Parent Square was sent out to all families inviting them to set up a table if they'd like to showcase their culture in some way. So far we haven't had anyone respond. Information was also provided to Options, the Siskiyou Health Center, Boys and Girls' Club and the Bilingual program. Both Boy's and Girl's Club and the Health Center would like tables ready for them. I am waiting to hear back from the others. I'm sure it will be a fun night for our families!

Boys and Girls Club:

Jenna Larkin reported an average attendance of 52 K-9th, mostly elementary. One day last week there were 58 students. Their goal is 75. SOLC (Land Conservancy), has visited all three clubs and are teaching students about how to respect the land and nature journaling. They will be taking Boys and Girls Club members around Lake Selma soon. A discussion around vegetation. Club will be open during Spring Break, Monday-Friday (7:45-5:15pm). Summer sign ups should be available by April 1st.

Teacher Requests/Comments: Update on sound system, it's ordered, we just have to wait our turn with SOESD for installation of screen and projector.

Next meeting: April 21st, 2025
