

SOUTHWEST
TEXAS ★ COLLEGE

OFFICE OF PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

FEBRUARY 2025 ●

swtxc/professional-development.edu ●

830-591-2919 ●

The Office of Professional Development

Thelma L. Herrera
Administrative Assistant

Dr. Renee Zimmerman
Director
Adjunct Instructor Psychology

Table of Contents

- Why does faculty development matter?
- Who do we support and how?
- What impact are we making, and where do we go from here?

Mission Statement

The Office of Professional Development serves as a resource for faculty advancement of student-centered learning at Southwest Texas College by supporting all faculty as they expand their professional practices and innovation, examine their ongoing instructional development, and advance continuous improvement processes to attain excellence in teaching and learning experiences for students.

2025 Strategic Plan Initiative

Strategic Objective 3.4

Develop and sustain an organizational structure for strategic innovation and development to include:

Develop a structure for strategic innovation

Professional Development Objective

To develop and sustain an organizational structure for strategic innovation and development by integrating syllabus management and student course evaluations into one unified system.

Scope of Faculty Support

Full-time Faculty

Adjunct Faculty

Key Initiatives

• Professional Development Highlights:

- Workshops, webinars, and training sessions.
- Focus areas: innovation in teaching, student-centered learning strategies, continuous instructional improvement, technology & system operations

• Collaborative Efforts:

- Partnering across campus to address instructional challenges
- Support for faculty teaching to ensure alignment with college-level standards.
- Grants Initiatives

• Technology Integration:

- AI tools for enhancing instructional efficiency
- Training for modern educational technologies

Impact and Outcomes

- Faculty Involvement
- Student Success
- Innovative Practices

Challenges and Opportunities

§ Challenges: Meeting diverse faculty needs, engaging adjunct/dual-credit faculty.

§ Opportunities: Expanding in-person, hybrid/online development, scaling successful pilot programs.

§ Future Plans: Automating faculty processes, developing AI-driven resources.

Thank You

ANY QUESTIONS
OR COMMENTS?