What is a Public Forum? - Parkrose School District wants to hear from their community. This forum is open to the public. We hope you attend and ask questions, make comments or just sit and listen. We will ask speakers to fill out a Citizen Comment card and follow policy BDDH-AR-Public Participation. Speakers may offer objective criticism of school operations and programs but the Board will not hear complaints concerning specific school personnel.

Interpreters available upon request, call 503-408-2135

Parkrose School District Board meetings are held in accordance with open meeting laws and with accessibility requirements.
