Easement NOT for public right of way purposes

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the parties expressly limit this easement to the City of Buffalo for purposes of access to and from the site. The easement granted is not for public road or public right of way purposes and may not be used as such by the City or the public.

Limiting Access

Grantee acknowledges that the Grantor has an interest in limiting access to Grantor's premises and school grounds upon which the access easement is located, and Grantee will cooperate with Grantor in such efforts. This easement may not be used for access by the general public and the Grantor retains the right to restrict access via gates, signage, or other methods provided the City is permitted keys to any gates installed.

Grantor's Right to Relocation

Grantor retains the exclusive and unilateral right to relocate, in Grantor's sole discretion, the access easement granted herein. Grantor may relocate such easement upon other property owned by Grantor by providing written notice to the City together with an updated legal description and sketch showing the new access easement location.
