JUSTIFICATION:

These vendors have provided excellent service for the District and are expected to continue doing so. Baker & Taylor and Midwest Tape are among the largest suppliers of library books and media in the U.S. and offer us up to 40% and 25% discounts respectively off their published prices. The District has a very good rapport with the vendors and their invoices are correct and received in a timely manner. The libraries require vendors with online ordering capabilities, cataloging records that are easily imported into their online system and physical processing of the material.
