The Dallas County Appraisal District is holding elections for their Board of Directors. Approving a resolution ballot for the election of the Suburban School Districts' Representative is required for the District to cast a vote. Ken Nolan, Chief Appraiser stated that depending on the election results there could be as many as four new board members.

Below are details received from the Dallas County Appraisal District regarding the three candidates on the ballot.

Candidate information:

Jerry Jones (nominated by Garland ISD) - Only candidate of the three with experience and is seeking to be re-elected. If re-elected this will be his second year on the Appraisal Board. He is a prior assessor collector, worked at the Appraisal District and Garland ISD before he retired.

David Merrit (nominated by Carrollton Farmers Branch ISD) - No prior experience on Appraisal Board, works for Federal Reserve Bank and is active in the Carrollton Farmers Branch community.

Dorothy Wolverson - (nominated by Duncanville ISD) - No prior experience on Appraisal Board is a Board of Trustee member of Duncanville ISD.
