Keller ISD Network Administrator Receives TCEA 2008 Technical Support Person of the Year Award

The Texas Computer Education Association (TCEA) selected Vaughan Hamblen, KISD Network Administrator, as the winner of the Technical Support Person of the Year award. He was announced as the winner at the TCEA annual convention.

Hamblen was selected by a committee of TCEA members from among the nominees. The Technical Support Person of the Year recognizes exemplary support personnel who make a significant contribution to the successful use of technology on a campus or at the district level.
