

Here are some activities the schools participated in for Eben Hopson Sr./ Inuit Day.

Anaktuvuk Pass: Nunamiut School

7th and 8th grade students created posters on Eben Hopson Sr.'s life and accomplishments and published them in a video on YouTube at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HONXIo9qjpM>. Here are a few samples:

Eben Hopson was born in Utqiagvik, known as Wainwright Barrow Alaska. During that time Captain Beechey was the person in control of Barrow. Hopson served Alaska Territorial Legislature and was great at the job. From 1957 to 1969.

Donnie

Eben Hopson had 10 siblings Samuel Kayutak Hopson, Edward E. Hopson. They were the greatest supporters of his life and the best friends that he had when he was alive.

Kashawn Stone

His greatest achievement was becoming mayor. He raised over 149 million dollars for his hometown. He was the first mayor for Utqiagvik and his net worth was over 200 million dollars.

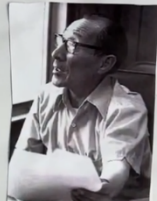

Patricia

In 1979, Hopson represented the Inuit in a court case suing US Secretary of Commerce, Juanita Kreps on the grounds that the International Whaling Commission had no standing to regulate subsistence whaling.

By Justin Gordon

A celebration of Inuit culture has occurred on November 7, 2006, in honor of Hopson's legacy the middle school in Utqiagvik was started.

Thomas 11-08-23

The first meeting of the ICC was hosted by Hopson in 1977 in Barrow.

He married Rosemarie "Rosie" Habeigh on February 10, 1985, when he was 20 years old. Rosie is a registered nurse. They fostered more than 50 children all across Alaska.

Matthew

Atqasuk: Meade River School

Meade River School hosted a community potluck to celebrate Inuit Day.

Harold Kaveolook School

Students have been learning about Eben Hopson Sr and what he accomplished for education on the North Slope and for Alaskans in general to create projects in celebration of Eben Hopson Sr. as shown below:

