

Charter Authorizing Panel Voting Sheet
Friendship Charter Amendment Request
March 5, 2025

Motion:

Panel Member	Vote	Reason/Comment
Phillip Baldwin	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> For <input type="checkbox"/> Against <input type="checkbox"/> Abstain	I vote to approve the amendment application and to remove the financial budget contingency. The financial budget submitted resolved all my questions.
Dr. Sonja Wright-McMurray	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> For <input type="checkbox"/> Against <input type="checkbox"/> Abstain	I support Friendship Charter's amendment application to move forward without contingencies. I am encouraged to see the charter has been thoughtful and conservative in the development of their budget. The decisions in building their budget has a students first in mindset. I am confident that Mr. Tran and his team will implement an effective model that may serve as a future example for others when addressing students with literacy learning differences.
