Virtual 2021 NAFIS Spring Conference – United in a Changing World.

As the nation comes together after a divisive election and continues to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic, the NAFIS Family will unite in our support for Impact Aid during this changing time. Together, we will educate a new Congress on Impact Aid and advocate for our shared goal: a strong Impact Aid program. We continue to miss the gathering of the NAFIS Family in person – and we look forward to the day we can welcome you back to Washington, DC. However, given the evolving nature of the pandemic and the operating status of the DC area and congressional offices, the NAFIS Board unanimously decided to hold the 2021 NAFIS Spring Conference as a virtual event. A virtual conference allows us to advocate, learn and connect while ensuring the safety and well-being of our community. As with all NAFIS Conferences, our top priority will be Impact Aid advocacy, and a key component of this event is our virtual Hill Day. We are also planning informative, thought-provoking and interactive sessions that will keep you up-to-date on Impact Aid, build your knowledge of other timely education policy topics and develop new connections among the NAFIS Family. Conference registration is $125. We will announce speakers and pre- and post-conference events in the coming weeks. While we may not be together in person, we will unite virtually to tell Capitol Hill the critical role that Impact Aid plays in school districts across the county. Join us!
