

Board Report
Christine Ketterling
Federal Programs Director
December 7, 2021

READY! For Kindergarten Workshops

We will be training a few staff members to provide Ready! For Kindergarten parent workshops in both Spanish and English to our families. The curriculum was created by the Children's Reading Foundation and provides activities and instruction to parents to support early literacy in the home. The curriculum utilizes talking, singing, reading, and play to foster essential pre-literacy and pre-math skills. Workshops are designed for parents with children ages 0-5.