

February Board Report What is happening at RJ Elementary -

On a daily basis we have had no less than 8 and up to 24 staff gone. Shout out to our staff for covering and doing what is best for the children.

Christina Garza has been chosen as a national trainer for Wit and Wisdom and Sarah Hamilton has passed her National Boards.

Mr Bob Williams, state mentor, worked with five teachers in the district. His compliments included high praises for the teachers and for the school.

Academic Awards acknowledged all children for success in addition to most improved and highest growth. Televised live over 100 views at one time.

Children in all grades in reading and math achieved higher growth than elementary schools across the nation. However 62% of our children are behind their grade level benchmarks.

Celebrated Elizabeth Petratovich Day with Regalia, orange shirts, classroom learning and a Hooya at 2:30.

Students in grades 3-5 have made drums and decorated and used them at the Hooya - we will have a formal awakening of the drums celebration later this month.

Every staff member is being observed daily either during their literacy or math block. Mrs. Lindsey is teaming with me in the observations. A follow up meeting is scheduled to discuss the observations.

Mike Stoez continues to provide math support to all classroom teachers and paraprofessionals.

Teachers received training on the NWEA/MAP assessments in preparation for the state assessment. They learned how to take the data and created individual learning stations.

Dr. Miguel Deangli, Donna Mae Roberts, David Nelson, Naomi and Gamass met on 2-2-22 to discuss an early childhood immersion program, mothers and child class and Dr, Deangi teaching two classes for the Fort Lewis Cohort.

RJ Elementary Dance Team has been practicing during club time and will perform at the high school basketball on Saturday night.
