

Smithville Independent School District Donation Form

The Smithville Independent School District Board Policy CDC (Legal) states that: All bequests of property for the benefit of the public schools, if not otherwise directed by the donor, vests the property in a board of their successors as trustees for those to be benefited by the donation. Funds or other property donated, or the income from the property may be spent by the trustees: 1) For any purpose designated by the donor that is in keeping with the lawful purposes of the schools for the benefit of which the donation was made; or 2) For any legal purpose if a specific purpose is not designated by the donor.

The District may receive charitable contributions if they are for public purposes, such as benefiting a group and not an individual. Contributions may be made to the District, District schools or various District groups and clubs.

Smithville Independent School District is a public school district and is a political subdivision of the State of Texas as noted in Title 34 of the Texas Administrative Code. The District is not a tax-exempt entity under the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Code Section 501(c) (3). However, the District is considered a tax-exempt organization that may receive charitable contributions according to the IRS Code Section 170(c) (1).
