Make the case for ISTE19

The ISTE Conference & Expo is the most influential edtech event in the world and the must-attend event for thousands of educators looking to harness the power of technology to advance learning and teaching. You know you need to be here! Let us help you make the case!

Why should you attend? Three reasons.

1. Teaching with technology skills are critical. The need for educators to possess the skills to effectively leverage technology for learning is undeniable. Whether you've been teaching with technology for decades or are just getting started, the ISTE Conference & Expo offers hundreds of learning opportunities to equip educators with the skills and knowledge necessary for digital age learning.
2. Educators must keep pace with the rate of edtech. Technology is ubiquitous and fast-moving, and the knowledge and best practices needed to harness it for teaching and learning are continuously evolving. Through our massive expo hall, ISTE conference attendees have a one-of-a-kind opportunity for hands-on learning with the latest in education technology solutions from hundreds of organizations.
3. Year-round learning built in. Registration to the ISTE conference includes ISTE membership, which means access to year-round learning, use-it-today resources that have been vetted by fellow educators and virtually endless opportunities to build influence by contributing to the field.
