FROM: Bill Cornell- Assistant Superintendent

Re: Scout Stipend

LPSD Scout Stipend Program

What is it?

When LPSD has an opening and ties a Scout Stipend to it, you can bring forth someone who was previously unknown to the district for consideration. If hired, the district will compensate you with a $3,000.00 stipend. $1,500 will be paid out when the new hire starts their contract; and $1,500 will be paid out once the new hire has completed their contract.

What it isn't?

We don't necessarily want folks advertising or attending job fairs on our behalf (unless prearranged). Sharing a posting via social media is fine. Bringing forth someone like a LPSD student teacher, tutor, or former employee in most cases will not count. LPSD administrators are not eligible for a Scout Stipend.

Why do we do it?

If we can forgo job fairs and put that money into the pockets of our staff or partners— we all win. Plus, “Known” entities are always a plus!

Who can participate?
