Policy Reference (if applicable):

Background Information:

Dr. Romano will provide the committee with a brief review of the new reporting requirements found within the ESSA Site Based Accounting framework that must be implemented for the current fiscal year. As an overview, ESSA requires that State Education Agencies report on their Report Card:

“The per-pupil expenditures of Federal, State, and local funds, including actual personnel expenditures and actual non-personnel expenditures of Federal, State, and local funds, disaggregated by source of funds, for each local educational agency and each school in the State for the preceding fiscal year.”
