October 21st:

FALL MASON JAR LUMINARY

Instructed by: Pam Anderson

3:15 in the GMR FACS Classroom— $5 to register: $15 due at class time

We will be creating a fall mason luminary jar that can set out well after Thanksgiving. Choose your color, apply your vinyl and you are ready to paint. When you are done you will have the cutest decoration that has a battery operated candle for lighting it up at night.

QUILTED PUMPKIN COASTERS

Instructed by: Pam Anderson

5:30 in the GMR FACS Classroom— $5 to register: $15 due at class

Doesn't everyone need a cute raggedy homespun plaid pumpkin coaster to sit that steamy mug of apple cider on? These little cuties can be whipped up in just an hour or so and will add a delightful little "detail" to your fall holiday decorating or as a thoughtful homemade gift set to keep on hand during the fall months!

October 28th:

JUNK PUMPKINS

Instructed by: Pam Anderson

3:15 in the GMR FACS Classroom—
$5 to register: $15 due at class time

We are going to have so much fun making one of my new FaVoRiTe projects—Junky Pumpkins! We will be using Jell-O Molds (among other things) to make the cutest little pumpkin that you are going to hate packing away. We will also repurpose another pumpkin out of other [junk]. Pretty much anything can be turned into a Pumpkin!

S...IS FOR SCARECROW

Instructed by: Pam Anderson

5:30 in the GMR FACS Classroom— $5 to register: $15 due at class

This class will utilize the sewing machine and hand sewing skills, We will make the cutest scarecrow that you will frame and take home for decoration year after year.
