The Association of Illinois Rural and Small Schools

Dear rural educators,

The Association of Illinois Rural and Small Schools is grateful for teachers like you. You inspire and shape the minds of rural children, often without many resources or recognition. We are proud to continue working on your behalf and with your support. Thank you for everything you do!

Sincerely,

Board of Directors

Association of Illinois Rural and Small Schools

Grant Opportunity for Northern and Central Illinois Districts

The Compeer Financial Fund for Rural America and the Rural Schools Collaborative are pleased to announce a new grant partnership. The program is available to rural school communities that are located within Compeer's designated 144 county region throughout Illinois, Minnesota, and Wisconsin.

The COVID-19 pandemic posed a variety of challenges to rural schools and their communities. Fortunately, many school districts tackled them head-on with creativity, innovation and commitment. The Rural Schools Innovation Grants program will support exemplary programs developed by rural schools during the pandemic.

Grants of up to $10,000 per school district are available through this one-time program.

Eligible Illinois Counties (Listed Alphabetically):

Adams, Boone, Brown, Bureau, Carroll, Cook, DeKalb, DuPage, Fulton, Grundy, Hancock, Henderson, Henry, Jo Daviess, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall, Knox, La Salle, Lake, Lee, Livingston, Marshall, Mason, McDonough, McHenry, McLean, Mercer, Ogle, Peoria, Pike, Putnam, Rock Island, Schuyler, Stark, Stephenson, Tazewell, Warren, Whiteside, Will, Winnebago, Woodford
