October

October 15 - Little Ceaser's Pizza Kits fundraiser -the parents and students did a wonderful job selling items. We were thrilled with the profit made. Mrs. Larman's class sold the most items and received a pizza party and enjoyed chocolate chip cookies too.

October 28-Nov 1- Parent Conferences were held

October 30 - Pre-K, Toddlers and Infants participated in our Character Parade lead by our very own Pinkalicious...Jennifer Hazen. The infants dressed up as firemen and the Bye-Bye Buggy was transformed into a fire truck for Corduroy goes to the Fire Station. The toddlers dressed up in their Halloween costumes with Ms. Shanna as Clifford and Ms. Grace as Emily Elizabeth from Clifford's Halloween. The Pre-K classes represented several different books. Miss Howard's class did Arthur's Halloween. Mrs. Larman's class represented the book The Gum Chewing Rattler. They were adorable in their black retro glasses and their bubble gum balloons. Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse came to visit via Mrs. Whitfield's class with Mickey Mouse's Birthday Party. Ms. Johnson's class had beautifully painted t-shirts for The Crayon Box that Talked. Miss Tina and Mrs. Wright got into the action as well with If you Give a Mouse a Cookie and If you Give a Cat a Cupcake. Everyone looked super cute and had a great time.

October 31st - Halloween parties - we had a spooky, fun time. Many students received Boo Grams made by the FCCLA at the High School.
