

TARLETON STATE UNIVERSITY

LAUNCHES NEW DUAL ENROLLMENT PROGRAM FOR TEXAS HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

TARLETON TODAY

Information for Prospective Administrators and Teachers

- New program offers courses in agriculture, engineering, math and more!
- Schedule to align with your high school calendar
- Course taught at your school by your teacher
- Curriculum developed by Tarleton faculty
- Increase student academic performance and college readiness
- Provides professional development for teachers

Advantages to High School Students, Parents

- Students are enrolled as a card-carrying Tarleton Texan with student benefits such as athletics and fine arts events
- Earn college credit at a fraction of the cost
- Students can apply credits toward an undergraduate degree
- Provides students with a jumpstart on the college experience

Courses Offered for 2023-24 School Year

- College Algebra
- Precalculus
- Animal Science
- Agricultural Economics

Early Sign-up Benefits

- Waived school district fee for professional development ($1,050 value per course)
- Waived tuition fee for eligible financial need students ($199 value per student)
- $500 stipend paid to each high school teacher participating

PARTNER WITH ONE OF THE FASTEST-GROWING UNIVERSITIES IN THE NATION

Contact Dr. Matt Underwood for details

 munderwood@tarleton.edu

TARLETON
STATE UNIVERSITY

Member of The Texas A&M University System

Allows students to earn college credit while in high school