Student Representation on Board of Education

It is the policy of the New Fairfield Board of Education to appoint a maximum of two students attending New Fairfield High School to be nonvoting members of the Board of Education at its public bimonthly meetings. During such meetings, the opinions of the students ~~will~~ may be solicited in order to provide added perspective to the Board of Education's decision making process.

Student representatives will not attend executive sessions of the Board of Education.

Selection Criteria and Processes

- Student representatives will be a member of either the Junior Class or Senior Class.
- ~~Student representatives will be members of the high school's student council or student senate~~
- Student representatives will maintain a cumulative grade average of "B" or better and will be current in meeting all academic and related responsibilities.
- Student representatives will have a record of exemplary school comportment; they have not and will not engage in behavior that results in suspension from school ~~or Saturday Detention.~~
- Student representatives will have excellent ability to express themselves.
- Students who wish to be representatives on the Board of Education will be required to submit an essay no longer than 500 words explaining their interest in and qualifications for the position to the high school principal.
- The student essays will be evaluated by a selection committee of four educators representing the four schools in the district. The principal of each school will choose an individual who will represent his or her school on the committee; a principal may choose to be the representative of his or her school.
- Using the criteria of cumulative grade average, punctuality in meeting academic and related responsibilities, ability to express oneself, and quality of essay, members of the selection committee will choose the most qualified students to be interviewed by the committee. During the interview, the students will be given the opportunity to express in person their interest in and qualifications for the position.
- From the most qualified students interviewed, two students will be chosen by the selection committee and recommended to the Superintendent of Schools.
