1. Welcome - Present: Sarah Biggs, Erik Lathen, Sam Osofsky, Amy Hemsley, Grant Innis.
 - a. Absent: Diana Miller
2. Review of the previous month
 - a. September theme (3R/Kindness - Last week of the month, Sam and Erik will bounce around to classes and talk about core values. The first week of school focused on teaching the students core values and 3Rs.
 - b. 3R/climate and culture update
 - i. Knight Flight- games are played and prizes are given every Thursday.
 - ii. 3R Star- The top staff member and student receive a prize.
 - iii. Positive Notes - 300 students have received one and 200 have received multiple. Great parent feedback.
 - iv. Activities update- RCC College Connect and Trades expo will be here soon. Thanks to Grant Innis
 - v. Back to school - Great turnout. BBQ in the courtyard. Hot dogs were sold out.
 - vi. Fall sports - Sports are in full swing and going great. Hoping for great success.
 - vii. Start of school - The new bathrooms are wonderful, Congregating in the old bathrooms was an issue, and we no longer have that problem. Students are enjoying them.
 - c. Academic update
 - i. Incompletes - Sam is working on getting a good picture of where we are currently. The sophomore class seems to be doing the best. We will get a better number when grading is updated.
 - ii. PLC work- Teaching and Admin staff are working as a team on Friday's to fine-tune instruction and develop new teaching strategies.
 - iii. Attendance- Sickness is going around, so attendance is down.
 - d. Advisory- Circle work with the classes seems to be going well. More of a home room feel for the students.
3. What is on the Horizon
 - a. Extracurriculars
 - i. Homecoming- October 6th is the homecoming game and the dance is the 7th.
 - ii. Athletics-
 - iii. Tailgate- October 6th
