How the Board Can Help

Promoting Our Work by using your connections to promote our department in the community and among local businesses.

Connecting us with Employers by leveraging your personal and professional networks to introduce us to local industries that might benefit from training services.

Provide Guidance and Feedback by sharing insights on workforce trends and community needs.

Champion Success Stories by sharing our social media stories and our upcoming newsletters with your network to help us promote and raise our profile.

We listen. We deliver. We make it easy.
