Objective: To encourage students to not only learn the curriculum, but to develop higher thinking skills which will help them be successful in the future.

Education:

East Texas Baptist University: Fall 2006-2010

Major: Elementary Education

Minor: Reading

Atlanta High School: 2006

Teaching Experience:

- Spring 2010 Student Teaching

Sam Houston Middle School, 6th grade Reading Language Arts

This classroom I was given the opportunity to teach whole group and small group sessions. I was also allowed to see and interact with the behind the scene things that prepares a teacher for her class such as, analyzing test scores, team meetings, lesson planning, tutorials and parent teacher conferences.

Travis Elementary School, Kindergarten

As a student teacher I am given the opportunity to work alongside a teacher on the day to day basis. Giving me the opportunity to face what I will be facing on a daily basis in the future.

- Fall 2009, Robert E. Lee, 1st grade

In this internship I observed whole group instruction, centers, worked with students one on one, graded papers and taught two lessons.

- Fall 2009, Sam Houston, 6th grade

In this internship I observed a reading language art classroom in which I graded papers, observed whole groups instruction, and taught two lessons.

- Spring 2009, Crockett, Kindergarten

In this internship I was in a classroom two days a week from 7:45 to 12:00. During this time I led whole class instruction, worked centers, did testing, made bulletin boards and attended two fieldtrips.

- Fall 2008, Washington Early Childhood Center

In this internship I worked in centers and one on one with the students. During this time I worked with art projects and helping students learn letters.

- Fall 2006, J.H. Moore, 3rd grade

During the observation I was able to observe a veteran teacher and a first year teacher. Throughout this observation I observed whole class instruction, and worked one on one with students.

Other Work Experience:

GYMFIT, Fall 2006-present

I worked as a gymnastics coach and head all star cheerleading coach for kids ranging in age from 2 up through college.

Certification:

As of today I have passed both my EC-4 Generalist and my Pedagogy and Prof. RESP 4-8 test. I have taken the English Language Arts and Reading 4-8 test, and I am waiting on the results.
