

EVALUATION RESULTS TABLE

Publisher, Title, Author, Copyright	Type of Material	Average of Responses for Criteria on Curriculum	Average of Responses for Criteria on Instruction/Assessment	Average of Responses for Criteria on Quality of Material
Pearson, Prentice Hall Economics , 2010	Text	5	5	5
Glencoe, Economics: Today and Tomorrow , 2008	Text	4	5	4
Glencoe, Principles and Practices , 2008	Text	4	5	4
Dushkin/McGraw-Hill, The Study of Economics: Principles, Concepts, & Applications , 2000	Text	3	4	3

We analyzed the materials with a 1-5 scale, 5 being the highest

Additional Note: When analyzed by Special Educators, parents, and students of all levels, the comments we repeatedly heard were that Prentice Hall Economics, provided the best support for all level learners, best developed economic literacy, and presented the most concrete explanations with multiple levels of enrichment.