Background Information:

- The Texas Education Agency (TEA) offers a Staff Development waiver that provides a maximum of 2,100 waiver minutes for professional development.
- The waiver minutes may not be used before the first day of student instruction or after the last day of student instruction.

Administrative Considerations:

- The waiver is used for staff development, teacher preparation and early release days.
- The waiver is good for one school year and must be renewed annually.

Communication Deployment:

- Board Meeting Minutes
