Hide Description

Break away from the Strip for a half-day Wild West desert adventure into Red Rock National Conservation Area. Experience stunning views, brilliant red washed landscapes and Native American history as you journey to this "jewel in the desert." Along the way, your experienced guide will offer unique insight into Red Rock Canyon. First stop on this tour is the Red Rock Canyon Visitors Center. From the Visitors Center, your tour continues along the 13-mile scenic loop through the canyon. Your guide will stop along the way for up-close and personal information on rock formations, petroglyphs and pictographs, geology, and Native American folklore. Lunch is included. Dress appropriately for potential hot weather and bring plenty to drink. Space is limited.

Hide Description

What do great principals do differently? How can you find time to give each teacher the feedback they need? What are some strategies to help your staff regain a student-centered approach? Is it possible to develop strong teachers into coaches? How do you create an environment where teachers and students feel valued and empowered? Can you be an effective leader and still enjoy what you do? If you're asking yourself these questions, then join Todd Whitaker, Eliza Thomas, and Principal Gerry Brooks in this inspiring, practical, energetic, and humorous day. It's packed with strategies, opportunities, conversations, reflections, and action-planning, all designed to make you the best leader possible.

Todd takes you through some high-impact notions and action items that reflect what great principals really do differently. From time management and teacher development to school culture and change, learn from the best how making even small, daily changes in what you do can have a huge impact on your staff and your students. Eliza opens the day with an inspiring keynote designed to build and strengthen your leadership bones and get you goal-setting right off the bat. Later on, she gets you thinking, talking, and sketching as she guides you through a mind-mapping strategy that is fun, flexible, and easy to share with teachers and students. In the middle of it all, Principal Gerry Brooks jump-starts your brain with his unique, sometimes silly, and hysterically realistic perspective on educator stress, building relationships, staff meetings, and more. Spend the day with Todd, Eliza, and Gerry and you'll head back to school feeling validated, motivated, vindicated, empowered, light-hearted, and inspired to affect the lives of those you lead.

Your registration includes a networking lunch and entertainment. Following the day's events, you are also invited to join your Administrator Summit colleagues for an exclusive networking cocktail reception (included with your registration).
