

SCHOOL CALENDAR

BACKGROUND:

In accordance with Section 101(3)(a) of the Michigan State School Aid Act (MCL 388.1701), the Board shall annually determine the total number of instructional days and hours for the school year. The district shall provide a minimum of 180 days of instruction for grades 1-12 and at least 1,098 hours of pupil instruction for grades K-12, as required by law.

Additionally, the Board shall ensure that school does not begin before Labor Day unless the District qualifies for a statutory exemption or obtains a waiver from the Superintendent of Public Instruction, as permitted under State law.

The Executive Director of Human Resources and the Executive Directors of Student Services have collaborated with the executive committee of the teachers' union to develop the 2025-2026 teacher work calendar, ensuring alignment with all applicable legal requirements.
