1. Welcome - Present: Amy Hemsley, Angela Teal, Diana Miller, Sam Osofsky, Erik Lathen, Sarah Biggs.
2. Review minutes and approve -
3. Review of the previous month
  - a. Activities-
    - Sports- Spring sports are in full swing and going well.
  - b. Academics- we are down to 375 incompletes. 28 for seniors- This is a really good number.
  - c. 3R climate and culture- We have almost 1000 3R notes and 4796 3R stars.
  - d. Conferences- We had 24% phone calls and 8% in person. Parents don't feel like they should attend. No real reason too.
4. What is on the Horizon
  - a. Extracurriculars- Drama will be having their first musical in May. Mr. Lathen will have a guest appearance in the play.
  - b. Breakfast of Champions- May 10th- Taylor's will be providing breakfast.
  - c. Incoming Frosh day and night-- May 16th is the incoming freshman day and night. Lots of fun activities are being planned.
  - d. Scheduling update- Student services will be at Fleming all day today April 25th to get next year's freshman signed up for classes.
    - i. New classes
      1. Foods 2 is a popular option for next year. We will also be offering an AP science class.
