View our 2020-21 Annual Report now.

In the 2018-19 AIRSS Annual Report, my letter reflected on “the roads between” our rural schools, not knowing the gap between those roads would widen in 2020. The long road behind us and the longer road to recovery has forced all of us to reflect on every aspect of our lives.

The Long Road Ahead - where do we go from here?

Representation is a critical component of the rural voice. For too long, rural schools and communities have been marginalized. Oftentimes, by virtue of rural isolation, our story is told by others, which leads to misinformation and bigotry.

The rural voice must be a strong and collective representation of our larger body of rural schools. Your financial support is key to AIRSS continuing to serve as the only VOICE of rural schools, rural students, and rural communities in Illinois. Thank you for supporting AIRSS.

Please contact info@airssedu.org with any questions about membership.

Thank you!
