BACKGROUND:

Moises Garza, band director at Lopez Early College High School, was selected as the 2025 Arcadio "Art" Guajardo Young Bandmaster of the year by the RGV Band Directors Hall of Fame. This award is bestowed upon band directors with 10 or less years of teaching experience who have shown tremendous skills in the field of music and have earned several accolades in their early teaching career. This individual has earned the respect of colleagues in the field of music education and has already set the bar high for other music educators to follow. The award was named posthumously, in honor of longtime Hanna High School band director, Arcadio "Art" Guajardo.
