Willard Alternative High School Program

GUIDANCE

Willard is a "school of choice" designed for students who want to earn a high school diploma and who want to participate in a rigorous and relevant educational experience preparing them for their adult roles and responsibilities in the 21st Century.

What Willard offers all students:

- o Smaller student body (150 students)
- o Smaller student-to-teacher ratio
- o 5 period day (no study halls)
- Shorter grading periods (6 weeks)
- o Shorter days (8:30a.m.-2:15p.m.
- Mentor teachers
- o More one-to-one help
- o Family atmosphere

Willard School is made up of three programs:

The Alternative High School Program is for students with alternative learning styles in need of smaller classes and more hands-on curriculum. It is an all day program consisting of 5-55 minute periods with no study halls.

School Information

Bridger Academy: Enrollment

Bridger's home is in C wing, the southeast corner of Bozeman High. About 98 students are enrolled currently, and they can take both Bridger and regular high school classes, said Andy Maheras, assistant principal in charge of Bridger.

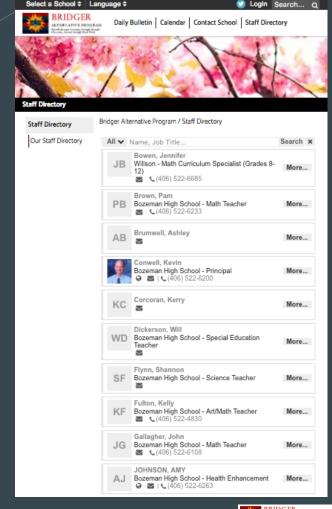

Classes are usually smaller, averaging about 15 students per teacher. Students get to work with the same group of teachers and classmates all year. Students said they get closer to each other and can share personal problems with teachers.
