4. SERVICE DESCRIPTION

AT&T Internet for Business is a digital data service that is provided either over a fiber optic medium or twisted pair copper medium. When provided over a fiber medium it uses either Gigabit Optical Passive Networking (GPON) technology or Switched Ethernet technology to deliver the service over the last mile from the AT&T central office ("CO"). When provided over a twisted pair copper medium, it uses one of two advanced versions of digital subscriber line loops ("DSL") technology that lets Customer send and receive data over existing telephone copper lines. The two technologies that support AT&T Internet are Internet Protocol DSL ("IP-DSL") and Very High Speed DSL ("VDSL") technology. For both technologies, a DSL signal travels on a copper line which can be either the same line that Customer's phone uses or a separate line without any voice service. AT&T Internet technology uses higher signal frequencies than those used by voice or fax. On shared lines, a DSL filter splits data traffic from voice traffic and routes them separately. Analog traffic (voice, and fax signals) is routed to the telephone or fax machine while the digital data traffic is routed to the AT&T Internet modem or router/gateway device. AT&T connects to a high-speed IP (Internet Protocol) backbone network using specialized DSL Access Multiplexers ("DSLAMs") located at the local CO, local remote terminal ("RT") or Video Ready Access Device ("VRAD"). Standard AT&T Internet is provided on a line that is shared with voice service (on IP-DSL) or co-located with a voice service (on VDSL technology). Standard AT&T Internet service is also provided with a dynamic IP address that can be changed or re-assigned when Customer logs onto the Internet. Also, service that requires a connection with static IP addresses that do not change is available at an extra charge. An AT&T-provided modem or router/gateway is required and must be either purchased or leased by Customer from AT&T.

4.1. Service Availability

AT&T Internet for Business is available only in the United States as follows:

- Service can be ordered in the following twenty-one (21) states: AL, AR, CA, FL, GA, IL, IN, KS, KY, LA, MI, MS, MT, NC, NE, OH, OK, SC, TN, TX, WI, subject to specific geographic availability.
- Customer can check specific availability of specific sites for all AT&T Internet for Business types with an AT&T sales representative or online at: <https://www.att.com/shop/unified/availability.html>.
- Actual speed achieved can vary depending on Customer location and line condition. Testing will be done at the time of installation.

4.2. Service Level Agreements (SLA)

All SLA computations, methodologies and credit requests are available to Customer at <http://www.att.com/businessdslsla>.

AT&T will be the only party to determine (in its sole discretion) whether AT&T has not met any of the SLAs. AT&T reserves the right to change or discontinue any or all of the SLAs at any time without notice to Customer. Customer must at all times cooperate with AT&T in testing, determining and verifying that a qualifying service outage has occurred.

5. RATES AND CHARGES

(Taxes and other charges may apply)

The pricing stated in this Service Agreement is stabilized through the end of the Term for AT&T Internet for Business orders placed on or before the Effective Date of this Service Agreement ("Initial Order"). At the end of the Term, Customer may continue Service (subject to any Minimum Payment Period that may still apply) under a month-to-month service arrangement at the prices, terms and conditions in effect on the last day of the Term for each Service Component. While Customer is under a month-to-month service arrangement, AT&T may change the prices, terms or conditions for any Service Component(s) on 30 days' prior notice to Customer.

The pricing for any additional order of AT&T Internet for Business service after the Initial Order is subject to change without notice and will depend on the promotions and market rates available at the time of such order. Customer will be required to sign a new Service Agreement or Pricing Schedule for any future order of AT&T Internet for Business service. No discounts apply.
