It is with great regret and sadness that I submit this letter of resignation for the position I hold as assistant coach for Browning High School's Speech, Debate, and Drama team. It was a difficult decision on my part to resign, as this activity is close to my heart.

After twelve incredibly fulfilling years with this award-winning team, I feel that the time has come to step aside. Over the past three years, I've had the privilege of mentoring and preparing Masala Prellwitz, who is more than ready to take on the full direction of this program.

Though it's not easy to let go of something so close to my heart, I do so with pride in what we've accomplished together. The journey has brought deep meaning to my life and, I believe, to our school community as well.

Being named the 2025 Class A Drama Coach of the Year is a moment I will always cherish—a capstone to a career defined by passion, creativity, and connection.

I will continue to offer support and guidance when possible to the program and to students at BHS.

Respectfully,

Edith Wagner
BHS Speech, Debate & Drama
