

During the August meeting, some school board members expressed interest in reviewing the school board exit outcomes. The possibility of combining the first and third exit outcome was mentioned.