

CESA 11
JOINT PAC / BOARD MEETING
APRIL 1, 2026

Brian Keith Buffington

Brian Buffington loves helping teachers and leaders do more with technology. He's passionate about using tech in creative, fun, and engaging ways. His background as a director of instructional technology, middle school teacher, musician, entrepreneur and youth minister gives him a unique perspective on K-12 education. Brian can inspire any crowd as a keynote speaker, workshop presenter, and musician.

EdTech K12 Magazine labeled Brian as "30 K12 IT Influencers to Follow in 2021".

The Role of AI - Embracing and Preparing for the Possibilities

Brian Buffington brings dynamic storytelling and practical insight to CESA 11 as he guides superintendents and school board members through the evolving role of artificial intelligence in K12 education. He will explore how schools can thoughtfully prepare students for their future, leverage AI to increase engagement and creativity, and use these tools to strengthen, not replace, the essential human work of teaching and learning.
