DMAC meets and exceeds all of the requirements to replace teacher portal through TEA including, access for all teachers in core subject areas allowing them to view their state assessment reports, student data from the 2007–2008 school year forward, data indicating progress in student achievement, the ability to make comparisons in classroom, campus, district and state performance, and all teachers will have access before the instructional year 2011-2012.

2. Does the district or campus plan reflect the need for this waiver? If yes, what is the specific objective impacted by the waiver?
Both the district and campus plans reflect the need for the waiver.
