ACTION

Ranna Raval motioned to deny the Petition and adopt a Resolution finding that the educational interest of the current and future students residing in Lewisville ISD and Coppell ISD would not be positively or negatively affected to a significant degree by the proposed detachment and annexation; the positive social effects of the proposed boundary change would be minimal; and the economic effects of the proposed boundary change would be negative for Lewisville ISD. Anthony Hill seconded the motion and the motion passed 6-0.

President Caviness declared the meeting closed and adjourned at 5:51 p.m.
