I am requesting permission to travel out of state to attend a US Marine educators work shop in San Diego, California January 18-22, 2010. The whole work shop, travel, meals are paid for by the government. I am only asking for sub reimbursement and have applied for that from the professional development fund. One of the days is a holiday and I won't be needing a sub.

This workshop will help me to better understand the vocational offerings and prerequisites of the armed forces. With this knowledge I will be a better resource to my vocational students when doing career exploration. Being one of the few vocational teachers left I think this is important.
