Recommendation: Approve Subrecipient Commitment Form between Wharton County Junior College (WCJC) and Texas A&M University (TAMU) to host approximately 10 foreign instructors at the Bay City Campus for a two-week program and authorize President McCrohan to execute the form on behalf of the institution.

Background and Rationale: The U.S. State Department intends to bring approximately 10 foreign instructors to Bay City for a two-week program. During their visit, they will tour our Nuclear Learning Labs, meet with Rudolph Henry and Daniel Johnson, and collaborate on setting up training labs at their home institutions. Afterward, the State Department plans to send Rudolph and Daniel to Europe to assist with similar setups.

Cost and Budgetary Support: $0.00 – no cost to the institution. The State Department will pay WCJC an honorarium of approximately $15,000 to host the event.

Strategic Priority Alignment:  Student Success  Community Impact Resource Optimization  Institutional Excellence
