13. FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER

Mr. Robert Holbeck, WMS Principal shared that he and Mrs. Clarno started working with the 8th graders to engage students in reading and changing the culture at the school. They are receiving some great feedback in the advisory groups. He also shared on December 9th the band and choirs delivered a great performance. Teachers are continuing to work on the Center for High School Success model to instill the skills needed for high school success.

Mrs. Emily Ledbetter, LES Principal reported that the Thanksgiving feast went off without a hitch and wonderful time was had by all. Mrs. Ledbetter gave a shout out to Samantha Blevins for teacher of the month. She also said that the students participated in a Secret Santa event where every student drew a name of another student and they had the opportunity to pick out a gift for the student they drew. The middle school leadership students came and helped wrap the secret Santa gifts and helped with the Christmas play decorations. Mrs. Ledbetter also invited everyone to the annual Christmas play on Wednesday the 17th at 7:00 pm.

Mrs. Janna Norton, MES Principal reported that each class participated in a turkey decorating contest. They also started their SEL groups during morning breakfast and they work on social interaction and building friendships. The 5th grade science class made cookies and some of the parents donated the ingredients. She also mentioned that some of her teachers are taking the initiative to build up the school spirit and finding lots of fun activities for the students to do. The school will also be hosting a Christmas craft night on Thursday, December 11th from 5:00 – 6:00 pm.

Mrs. Lisa Dickover, BES Principal shared that they served 465 people at their holiday feast and was so very proud of her kitchen staff for that event. The DHS leadership students came and helped with the event which was a huge help. She also reported that their school would also be hosting a craft night from 5:30 – 7:00 and serving cookies and Santa will be there as well. The school has a lot of fun holiday events planned for the students. She shared that she is seeing some of the students who have been struggling are now more engaged in their classrooms and making great progress.

Mr. Craig Anderson, DHS Principal reported that the DHS choirs had a great holiday performance the night before and band will be on December 16th. He also shared that he and Mr. Wilson had the opportunity to participate in the mock job interview process for the adult team class. He said that he was impressed with the students at how well prepared they were and attributes that to their teacher, Mrs. Parks.
