RE: Institute Day, February 28, 2014

The attached table lists the variety of activities for Mid-Valley staff on the Institute Day, February 27, 2014.

Member district staff also attended some of these events as well. The Pam Leonard's session for paraprofessionals had nearly 200 participants who learned about techniques to work with students with autism. Anita Archer spoke about literacy strategies for at-risk learners and had approximately 150 participants. And, approximately 40 Speech-Language Pathologists participated in a workshop about Common Vocabulary.

Many thanks to Natalie Assell, Maureen Joy, Karin Alber, and Bonnie Carlson who helped make this day so successful.
