

Board Review Month of February 2012

03/05/12

Colorado City High School

- Enrollment continues to remain fairly steady at 276
- UIL students continue to prepare to compete in various academic meets
- Most of the stock shows (San Angelo, San Antonio, Ft. Worth) nearly complete (Houston and Star of Texas shows left).
- All spring sports in full swing
- UIL Solo/Ensemble Contest @ CHS on March 1st.
- On the 23rd we held a FASFA REGISTRATION night for parents (weren't overly crowded-we only had 3 parents show).
- Number of students participated in the Regional FCCLA Meeting in Abilene this past week.
- Would like your thoughts about offering Drivers Ed class to students: Be someone outside the District but they are bonded – Cost would be around $350 (50 hrs of classroom and 12 hrs behind the wheel). We could possibly start we get back from Spring Break. Class would meet on Monday and Thursday from 7-9pm and I would like to invite Westbrook and Loraine students as well. There is a maximum of 20 students- cost to the district = use of a classroom from 7-9 on those two days.
- TAKS Test next week in ELA as well as retakes.
- Early out scheduled for the 9th; Release at 12:30
- We would like to try a new bell schedule when we return from Spring Break for the next 5-6 weeks to continue our preparations for the TAKS and EOC's.
  - 7:45-8:00 AM Tutorials
