On March 28th interested Sophomores and Juniors will be taking the Accuplacer exam. This exam helps determine if students can take concurrent enrollment classes for college credit while here at R-P.

Our annual 6th Grade Science Fair was held on Friday, March 15. What a great day of student experiments and displays. Thank you Mrs. Boyum for leading the charge with this wonderful activity.

Congratulations to our HS Knowledge Bowl Team of Jasmine Schuler, Jacob James, Ricky Buchanan, Leah Himlie and Coach Meredith Johnson on securing a spot in the State Knowledge Bowl Completion on April 11 and 12 in Brainerd.

GOAL 2: Develop well-rounded students in the areas of character, community & academics.

Congratulations to our HS Band and Choir students for each earning 3 superior ratings at the Large Group Contest held in Fillmore Central on March 11. They will be competing in Small Group Contest on April 9 at R-P.

GOAL 4: Promote and provide positive school and community culture that engages all stakeholders.	On March 8th, we held our “Fine Arts Night”. In addition to our annual band and choir concert, student work from the Art, Industrial Technology and Housing and Design departments were on display. Grace Thompson, Cole Knutson, and Faith Eide shared their competition speeches. It was a very fun filled night as many students were able to share their artistic talents with the community.
