- C. Summary: Texas school districts are legal subdivisions of the state and are covered under the Texas Tort Claims Act, which provides sovereign immunity for accidents occurring on school grounds. Student accident insurance offers supplemental coverage for medical expenses resulting from accidental injuries during school-related activities or while on campus. Coverage and benefit limits vary based on the plan selected by the parent. The policy runs concurrently with the 2025–26 school year, effective from August 1, 2025, through July 31, 2026.

D. Budgetary Impact:

$0- Included in the
2025-26 Adopted
Budget

E. Administrative Recommendation:

I motion to approve the Student Accident Insurance presented for the 2025-26 school year.
